GENERAL ORDERS. INSTRUCTIONS, &c.

[ISSUED AS A SPECIAL ARMY ORDER ON THE 29TH APRIL, 1893.]

A.O. 103.—Discipline—Alterations in Army Act.

1. The Army (Annual) Act, 1893, introduces amongst other amendments to the Army Act, the following important changes:—

- (a.) Power is given to a Commanding Officer to award 14 days' imprisonment for any class of offence. (Section 46 (2).)
- (b.) The minimum number of members for a District Court-Martial is made three instead of five at all stations. (Section 48 (4).)
- (c.) When a Commanding Officer proposes to dispose summarily of an offence committed by a soldier by other than a minor punishment, the soldier is given the choice of being tried for the offence by a District Court-Martial, or of having his case summarily disposed of by his Commanding Officer.
2. The object of extending the powers of Commanding Officers is to enable them to dispose of a number of miscellaneous offences which have hitherto entailed a Court-Martial, and its consequent disabilities.
3. The Commander-in-Chief desires that General Officers Commanding will carefully watch the manner in which Commanding Officers exercise their increased power, which for the present will not be exercised by a Commanding Officer under the rank of Field Officer.
4. The exercise of this power by Commanding Officers should render the assembly of Regimental Courts-Martial infrequent. For cases not summarily disposed of, a District Court-Martial, the minimum number of Officers for which has been reduced to three at all stations, should as a rule be convened.
5. No Officer, when it can be avoided, is to be detailed to sit on a Court-Martial, who has not, in addition to the qualification prescribed by the Army Act, Section 48 (3) and (4), previously attended as a supernumerary at least six times. When the number is three, not more than one member is to be a Subaltern Officer. In doubtful or complicated cases the Court should still, when possible, consist of five Officers.
6. Attention is called to Section 46 (6), under which in future a soldier may in every case demand to have the evidence against him taken on oath.
7. The directions contained in Section 46 (8) must be carefully observed. A Commanding Officer, after hearing the evidence, but before making an award, will ask the soldier whether he desires to be dealt with summarily or tried by District Court-Martial, and proceed accordingly. Should a Commanding Officer award a punishment other than a minor one, to a soldier without having previously asked him if he wishes the case tried by Court-Martial, the soldier will have a right to appeal against the award ad extra vires, and to be tried by a District Court-Martial.
8. The Queen's Regulations and the Manual of Military Law are under revision, and the alterations rendered necessary in the regulations and rules of procedure will be made in the revised editions.

A.O. 104.—Foreign Languages.

2. The following are hereby cancelled:—

Army Orders 5, 38 (and the regulations issued therewith), 93 (and the rules issued therewith), and 171 of 1892.

A.O. 106.—National Rifle Association—Annual Competition.

1. The annual rifle competition for the following prizes, challenge cups, &c., given by the National Rifle Association, will take place at Bisley in July next. The conditions laid down on the forms of entry, which will be forwarded from the office of the Association to the Officers Commanding corps, are to be strictly observed:—

- "The Royal Cambridge Challenge Shield."
- "The United Service Challenge Cup."
- "The Brinsmead Challenge Shield."
- "The Army and Navy Challenge Cup."
- "The General Eyre Challenge Prize."
- "The Evelyn Wood Prize."

2. As a pull of less than six pounds will disqualify a competitor, care must be taken that the locks of the arms are carefully tested before the competitors proceed to Bisley.

3. The travelling expenses of competitors (except those of teams entering for the "Royal Cambridge Challenge Shield," as stated in para. 8) will not be borne by the public.

4. The Commanding Officer of the regiment, district, division, battalion, or depot, which gives the winner of the "Army and Navy Challenge Cup," will be held responsible for the safe custody of the cup, and for its return to Messrs. Elkington & Co., 22, Regent Street, London, by the 15th June in the year following that in which it was won.

5. The annual Cavalry rifle competition for the "Royal Cambridge Challenge Shield" will take place on the 22nd July, and the competitors are to be selected on the conditions specified in the following paragraphs:—

6. A section consisting of four men, mounted on bona fide troop horses, may be furnished by each regiment of Household Cavalry and Cavalry of the Line desirous of competing. One of each section will be of not lower rank than sergeant, but not more than two will be non-commissioned officers. Depôts of regiments serving abroad will be entitled to enter sections, provided the same horses are not used by more than one section.

7. Commanding officers will transmit the forms ("E") properly filled up, to the Adjutant-General, Horse Guards, War Office, in duplicate, so as to arrive not later than 12 noon, on Wednesday, the 12th July, after which date no application will be attended to. Forms of entry for other competitions will be sent direct to the Secretary of the National Rifle Association, 12, Pall Mall East, London, S.W., and to Camp, Bisley, on and after the 6th July.

8. The sections sent by regiments quartered in England will be granted the customary marching allowances for the number of days usually taken in performing the journey from their respective stations to Bisley and back. There will be no objection to their being sent by rail, but any expense incurred thereby in excess of the cost had they marched, must be borne regimentally. Should any regiment serving in Scotland or Ireland desire to send a section to compete, the whole cost of the journey must be borne regimentally.

9. The men are to be fully equipped in every respect in Drill Order, Lancers without lances.

10. Tents for the men and covered stabling (temporary) for the horses will be provided in camp at Bisley for the sections sent to compete, and both men and horses will be rationed by the Army Service Corps during their stay.

11. The Commanding Officer of the regiment furnishing the winning section will be held responsible for the safe custody of the shield and for its return to Messrs. Elkington, 22, Regent Street, London, by the 15th June of the year following that in which it has been won. Should the regiment be ordered on service abroad, the trophy must be placed in the charge of the Commandant of the Cavalry Depot, Canterbury, until required to be returned.

TO MILITARY MEN & OTHERS.

S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfectly Waterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be affected so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and dirt for many hours, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article will be restored without any fresh application of the Blacking, or more than one minute's attention; after five or six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rub (daily) with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the polish for some time. This Blacking will be found equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

THE SOLDIERS' DAUGHTERS' HOME, HAMPSTEAD, FOR THE MAINTENANCE, CLOTHING, AND EDUCATION OF THE DAUGHTERS OF SOLDIERS, ORPHANS OR NOT.

Patrons:

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

MAJOR-GENERAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

DE ROS, Lieut.-General,
Chairman of Committee.
